MOTION TO DISMISS

Your Honor, I am not asking for this dismissal for myself, but rather for my co-defendant, Linda Sue Belcher.

On August 18, 2011, Mrs. Belcher suffered a massive heart attack. Her heart stopped beating for almost 5 minutes before the medical people arrived and shocked her heart back to beating. She was in CCU for 10 days with life support keeping her alive.

Mrs. Belcher has suffered irrerversal brain damage and will not be able to defend herself in this court. She is now in rehab, trying to put what little of her life back together. I will not release the name the rehab center because of the chance it will go public, However, I will release that name privately for verification, provided that it does not become part of this record.

I ask that the Plaintiffs for once in their lives to have some compassion and agree with this motion. Mrs. Belcher was their friend for many years before they turned on her.

They did everything they could to destroy this woman and now they have done it.
